LEGAL RESEARCH YOU CAN TRUST

Westlaw International delivers not only the law, but also the history and greater meaning behind it. All content is interlinked and cross-referenced across the entire platform, to help you find what you're looking for with speed and accuracy.

GET THE BIGGER PICTURE

For laws in Australia, Canada, Hong Kong and the U.S., KeyCite is the powerful citation research service that allows you to view the history of a case, statute, administrative decision or regulation to help determine whether it is good law and to retrieve citing references. The service will enlighten and empower your research, meaning no time is wasted performing additional searches.

FOCUS YOUR SEARCHES, INCREASE YOUR EFFICIENCY

Westlaw International provides you with two search methods, Natural Language and Terms and Connectors, giving you the results you're looking for at the touch of a button.

Start your legal research with nothing more than a plain-English description of your topic. From there, you can quickly and intuitively line up a complete research solutions. Cases, statutes, treaties, forms, journal articles and more are all brought to light by your initial word search. By diving deeper, you will find unique enhancements that make the information on Westlaw International more accurate, relevant and easier to understand; giving you greater confidence to build your arguments.

CUSTOMISED RESEARCH TABS

Research tabs are organisational tools that help you focus your research. By using research tabs, you can quickly search within a particular topic, content set or jurisdiction. You can customise which tabs sit at the top of your screen to ensure you can easily access the features and content you frequently use.

DIRECT LINKS TO PRIMARY LAW

One of the best parts about Westlaw International is that all content is linked. When a case references a piece of legislation, there will be a direct link to it. When a case cites another case, you can link straight to it. This means your research is seamless and you waste no time performing additional searches.
